36th Annual Lane County Home & Garden Show
Go Garden Hopping in the Barns ~ March 12-15, 2015 at the Fairgrounds in Eugene!

The 36th Annual Lane County Home & Garden Show returns March 12-15! Attendees can explore over 300 exhibits spread out over three acres and learn from our experts at 46 home and garden workshops.

Garden Hop through major springtime gardens! Following rivers to the edge of the forest in the Expo Halls. Once inside, attendees will discover the largest and most dramatic Landscaper's Showcase in the show's history. Four major springtime gardens will be packed with the most bloom ever! While visiting the Expo Halls, attendees can head to the Garden Marketplace where a record number of nurseries will be selling plants, planters, garden décor and edibles.

This year's show is presenting over 50 new exhibitors who will be showing their wares, services, and craftsmanship at the show. Outdoor living innovations include exhibits with ponds, hardscapes, and custom sod, decking materials, outdoor kitchens, new spa innovations, and many unique green houses. As for inside of the home, discover new appliances, cabinet displays, swim spas and fun gadgets!

With 46 home and garden seminars, attendees are able to receive the best tips and advice to start working on their spring projects. Show seminars offer a wide variety of information from Small Space Gardens with National Expert Melinda Myers to Growing Organic Fruit with John Fischer. A full list of the seminars are online: www.EugeneHomeShow.com.

The show takes months of preparation, yet visitors only have 26 hours to get a sneak peak of spring! Lane County Home Show is excited to present the sights and scents of spring with flowering plums, blooming hyacinths, daphne and swaths of color woven throughout the show. Step inside to meet the best experts, fresh ideas and inspiration to get growing and going on home projects this spring.
