Say GOODBYE to SNOWMAGEDDON and HELLO to SPRING!

40th Annual Lane County Home & Garden Show a Tradition of Spring – March 7-10 at the Lane Events Center

The Traditions of Spring include the BIG 40th Annual Lane County Home & Garden Show sponsored by American Family Insurance. The Spring Show runs March 7 through 10 at the Lane Events Center in Eugene. Attendees can explore over 325 exhibits covering three acres. Admission is free with canned food donations to benefit FOOD for Lane County.

After the record snow storm homeowners can find all the experts to remove and restore damaged trees to roofs! Attendees can explore over 325 exhibits spread out over three acres filling the Convention Center and the Expo Halls, commonly known as “the Barns” which run along the Amazon Canal. Contractors, home builders, remodelers, landscapers, designers, and trades will be manning exhibits with all expertise to get projects going this spring. Suppliers and retailers will be staffing exhibits packed full of “What’s New” for the home and garden.

Headlining the show is The Renegade Gardener ~ Speaking All Four Days! On Sunday, REAGANDOODLE & his “momager” Sandi Swiridroff will present The Heartwarming Tale of a Dog & His Favorite Toddler”. Families can meet and snap photos with the Instagram sensation @Reagandoodle after the talk. Sandi will be holding a book signing of Reagandoodle & His Little Buddy – a portion of the proceeds go to help foster children. Three stages will present 48 home and garden seminars and demonstrations. The full schedule is online at: www.EugeneHomeShow.com.

After last week’s SNOWMAGEDDON spring’s first plant sales will be held in the Expo Halls Garden Marketplace to spring’s first plant sales with specialty nurseries selling plants, garden art and décor, power equipment, garden follies, greenhouses and redwood furniture. Tour a Springtime Gardens, in FULL BLOOM in the Convention Center and the Expo Halls. The Garden Gurus include Master Gardeners, Mary-Kate Mackey, Vanessa Gardener Nagel, and John Fischer “The Relaxed Gardener”. Saturday 4:30pm Sedum Chicks will hold “Take & Make Sedum Gardens in the The DIG IT! Stage.

The show takes months of preparation, yet visitors only have 25 hours to get a sneak peak of spring! Lane County Home Show is excited to present the sights and scents of spring with blooming hyacinths, daphne and swaths of color woven throughout the show. Step inside to meet the best experts, fresh ideas and inspiration to get growing and going on home projects this spring. The best projects start out by meeting a contractor face to face at the home show!

The four day show contributes over seven million dollars in incremental economic impact annually. Show goers can “Register to Win over $4,000 in KEZI-9 Prizes” in the Expos Halls. The Seminar Schedules, Exhibitor Directory, and Show Maps are online at: www.EugeneHomeShow.com.
